

DISABILITY INSURANCE PROVISIONS

Disability is any illness or injury, either physical or mental, that prevents you from doing your regular or customary work. Disability also includes elective surgery, pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions.

Disability Insurance (DI) is a component of the State Disability Insurance (SDI) Program and is designed to partially replace wages you lost because of a disability that was not caused by your work. (See “Other Programs” on reverse for job-related disabilities.)

SDI taxes are paid by those California workers who are covered by the SDI program. Tax rates may vary from year to year. For current rates, contact the Employment Development Department (EDD) Disability Insurance Customer Service at 1-800-480-3287 or EDD Employment Tax Customer Service at 1-888-745-3886.

DI Plans

- State Plan. DI's State Plan is covered in this brochure.
- Voluntary Plan. This is a private plan, approved by the Director of EDD, which may be substituted for the State Plan. Employers and employee groups may establish Voluntary Plans if the majority of employees and the employer agree to do so. If you are covered by a Voluntary Plan, the provisions of this brochure may not apply to you. Obtain information about your coverage and file a voluntary plan claim through your employer.
- Elective Coverage. Employers and self-employed persons, including general partners, may elect coverage. However, the method of computing benefits for elective coverage participants is not the same as for mandatory rate payers. The cost of participating, which is set annually, can be obtained from your local EDD Employment Tax Customer Service Office.

Elective Coverage claims are filed in the same manner as State Plan claims; however, there are some differences in eligibility requirements from those listed in this pamphlet. For additional information or to apply for coverage, contact EDD Disability Insurance Customer Service at 1-800-480-3287 or EDD Employment Tax Customer Service at 1-888-745-3886.

How to Claim State Plan Benefits

1. Request a claim form:
 - By telephone at: 1-800-480-3287
 - By Internet at: www.edd.ca.gov
 - By TTY (teletypewriter for deaf, hearing-impaired and speech-impaired persons only) at: 1-800-563-2441 for DI or 1-800-445-1312 for PFL.
 - By writing EDD, Disability Insurance, P.O. Box 13140, Sacramento, CA 95813-3140
 - In person by visiting any of the DI offices listed under “DI Claim Management Offices.”
 - California State government employees covered by SDI should telephone 1-866-352-7675.
2. Fill out and sign the “Claim Statement of Employee.” Print clearly, and be sure that your answers are complete and correct because errors may delay payments.
3. Have your doctor complete the “Doctor’s Certificate.” Usually a claim cannot begin more than seven days before you were examined by or under the care of a certifying doctor. Certification may be made by a licensed physician, surgeon, U.S. Government medical officer, osteopathic physician, chiropractor, podiatrist, optometrist, dentist, designated psychologist, or accredited religious practitioner. For normal pregnancy-related disabilities, certification may be made by a duly licensed nurse-midwife, nurse practitioner, or midwife.
4. Mail your claim form within 49 days from the first day you were disabled. If your claim is late, you may lose benefits unless your explanation of the delay is accepted as reasonable.

How Benefits Are Paid

- The SDI Program is designed to serve you by mail. You do not need to appear in person to apply for or receive benefits.
- When your claim is received, you may be contacted by mail or by telephone for additional information if needed. Most claims are processed within 14 days.
- The first seven days of your disability claim are a “non payable” waiting period.

Benefits are paid as quickly as possible after all information to determine eligibility is received. If you meet all eligibility requirements, benefits will be authorized. If you are eligible for further benefits, you will be sent additional benefits automatically or sent a "continued claim" certification form for you to complete for the next benefit period. Usually these benefit periods will be in two week intervals. However, the DI Program pays benefits based on daily eligibility within a seven-day calendar week. Partial weeks are paid at a daily rate. This rate is one-seventh of your weekly benefit amount. Please allow ten days from the date you mail a certification for receipt of your payment.

How Your Benefit Rate is Determined

Your benefit amounts are based on wages paid to you during a specific 12-month base period, which is determined by the date your claim begins. Therefore, you should carefully consider when to start your claim since this may affect your weekly benefit rate, your maximum benefit amount, and the period of your benefit eligibility.

Only the wages in your base period that were subject to the disability insurance tax can be used in computing your benefits. To qualify, you must have earned at least $300 during your base period. The month in which your claim begins determines which four consecutive quarters must be used.

If your claim begins in:

- January, February, or March, your base period is the 12 months ending last September 30. (Example: A claim beginning February 14, 2007, uses a base period of October 1, 2005, through September 30, 2006.)
- April, May, or June, your base period is the 12 months ending last December 31. (Example: A claim beginning June 20, 2007, uses a base period of January 1, 2006, through December 31, 2006.)
- July, August, or September, your base period is the 12 months ending last March 31. (Example: A claim beginning September 27, 2007, uses a base period of April 1, 2006, through March 31, 2007.)
- October, November, or December, your base period is the 12 months ending last June 30. (Example: A claim beginning November 2, 2007, uses a base period of July 1, 2006, through June 30, 2007.)

Exceptions: If your claim is determined to be invalid, but you were unemployed and seeking work for 60 days or more in any quarter of your base period, you may be able to substitute wages paid in prior quarters.

In addition, you may be entitled to substitute wages paid in prior quarters either to make your claim valid or to increase your benefit amount, if during your base period you:

- were in the military service.
- received workers' compensation benefits.
- did not work because of a labor dispute.

If your situation fits any of the above, include a note with your claim form.

Wage Continuation. If your employer continues to pay you wages while you are disabled, your DI benefits may be affected. DI benefits plus wages cannot exceed your regular weekly wage. Your DI benefits will not be affected by any vacation pay you may receive.

Maximum Benefits. The maximum benefit amount is 52 times the weekly rate, but not more than your total base period wages. Exception: For employers and self-employed individuals who elect SDI coverage, the maximum benefit amount is 39 times the weekly rate.

In addition, benefits are payable only for a limited period to a resident in a state-approved Alcoholic Recovery Home or Drug-Free Residential Facility. However, disabilities related to or caused by acute or chronic alcoholism or drug abuse, being medically treated, do not have this limitation.

Pregnancy. As with any medical condition, your disability period begins the first day you are unable to do your regular or customary work. DI benefits are based on the period of time your doctor certifies you are unable to do your regular or customary work. Do NOT send in your claim for pregnancy-related disability benefits until the date your doctor certifies you are disabled.

NOTE: For information on Paid Family Leave bonding benefits, see the "Other Programs" section of this brochure.

You May Not be Eligible for Benefits

- If you are receiving Unemployment Insurance or Paid Family Leave benefits.
- If you are not working or looking for work at the time you become disabled.
- If you are in custody due to conviction of a crime.
- If your full wages are paid.
- If you are receiving workers' compensation at a weekly rate equal to or greater than the DI rate. If workers' compensation benefits are paid at a lower rate than your DI rate, you may be paid the difference.
- For the amount of time a claim is late (without good cause).
- If you make a false statement or fail to report a material fact. (A 30 percent penalty may be assessed if benefits are overpaid because you willfully withheld a material fact or made a false statement.)
- If you fail to attend an independent medical examination when requested. (Fees for such examinations are paid by EDD.)

The California Unemployment Insurance Code provides for penalties consisting of fines, imprisonment, and loss of benefit rights for fraud against the Disability Insurance system.

Your Rights. You are entitled to:

- Know the reason and basis for any decision that affects your benefits.
- Appeal any decision about your eligibility for benefits. (Appeals must be sent to the DI office in writing.)
- A hearing of your appeal before an Administrative Law Judge (ALJ). You may further appeal the ALJ's decision to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board and the courts.
- Privacy. Information about your claim will be kept confidential except for the purposes allowed by law.

Your Obligations. You are responsible to:

- Complete your claim and other forms correctly, completely, and truthfully.
- Mail your claim and other forms in the time limits shown on the forms. If you are late and you believe you have a good reason for being late, you should include a written explanation of the reason(s) with the form.
- Contact DI if you do not understand a question or how to answer it.
- Include your name and Social Security number on all letters to DI.
